

she codes;

she codes; is a community of women established with the goal of reaching 50% women software developers Israeli high-tech scene. They offer data analysis and programming courses to women

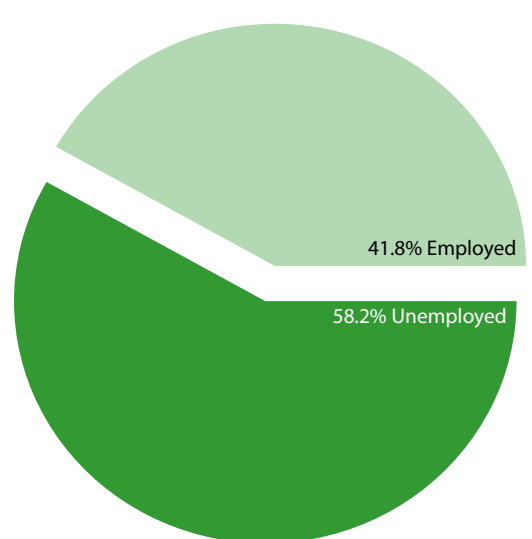

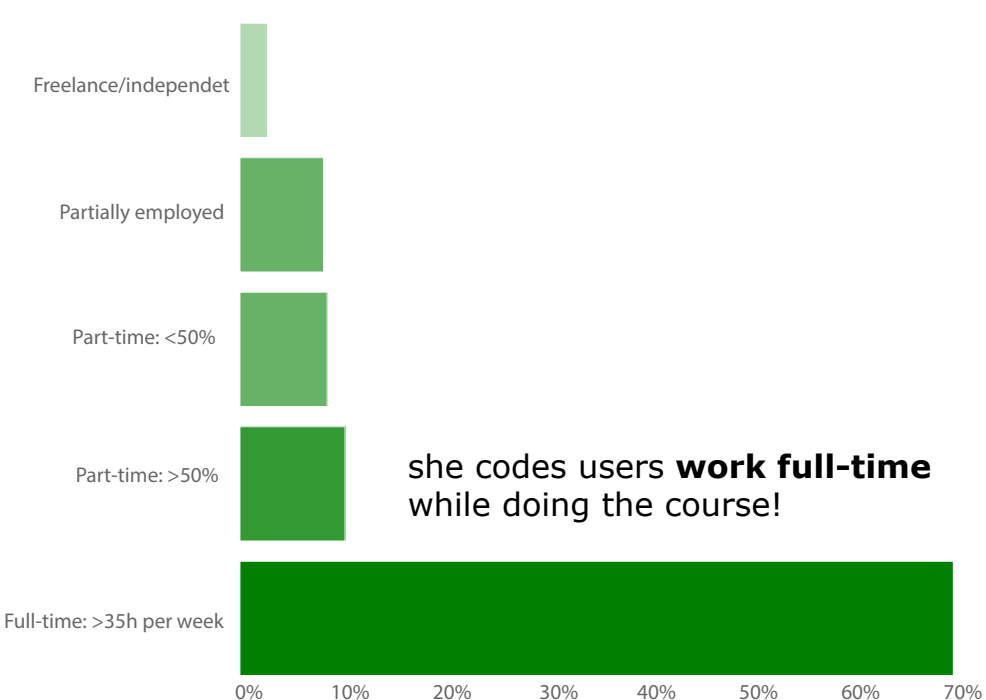

Users pay with data: they have to fill-out surveys while taking any course

We are showing the results from surveyed she codes users who took the python course in 2017:

What do we know about she codes users?

...and while checking their employment status we observe 58.2% of them are unemployed

Most of she codes users who finish the course went to the university...

...and 68% of them work in a non-tech company

she codes has a program completion rate of 34%!